

Nature as a Story Natural Sciences Pre-Questionnaire Results

The questionnaire's aim is to find out the students' motivation of studying science, learning environment in the science classes and the connection between science and the students' career choice in future. Nature sciences are physics, chemistry, biology, geography and science are studied in nature science classes. The questionnaire includes 13 questions from these fields. 135 students from Turkey, 25 students from Spain, 47 students from Estonia and 186 students from Italy participated in this questionnaire. The questionnaire was administered online between November and December in 2016 at partner schools. Here are the results:

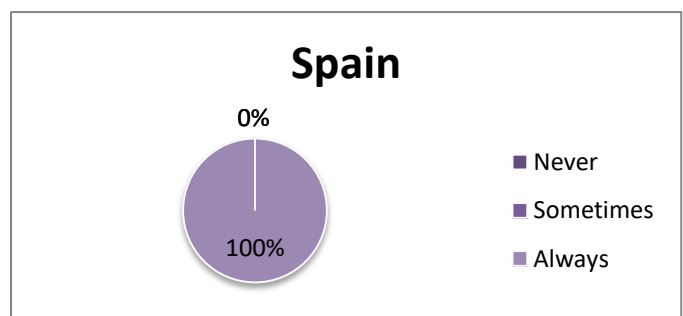

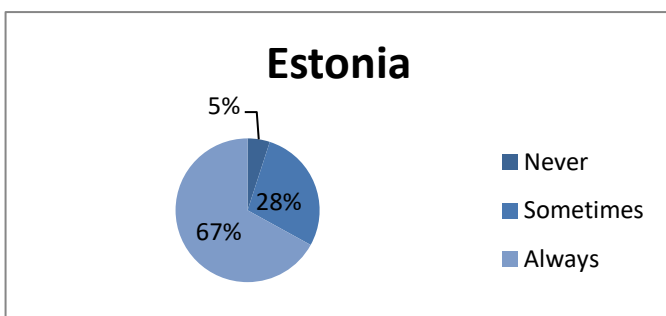

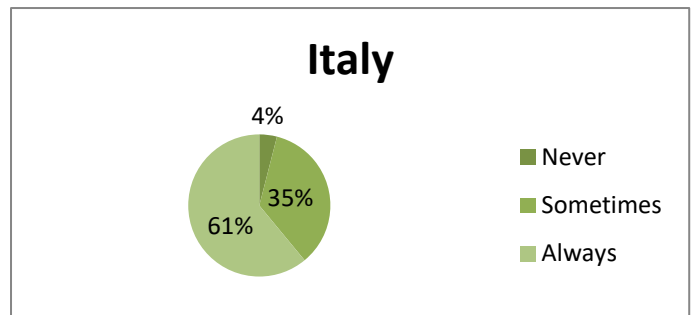

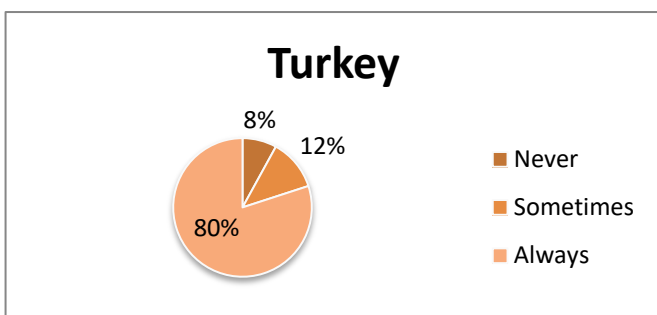

1- Studying sciences is interesting.

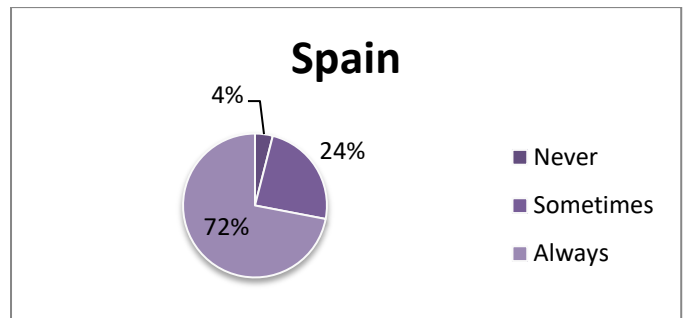

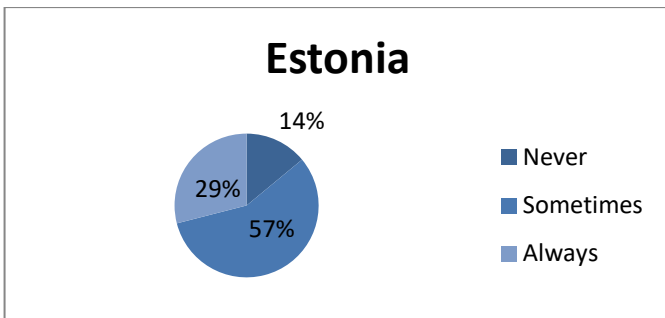

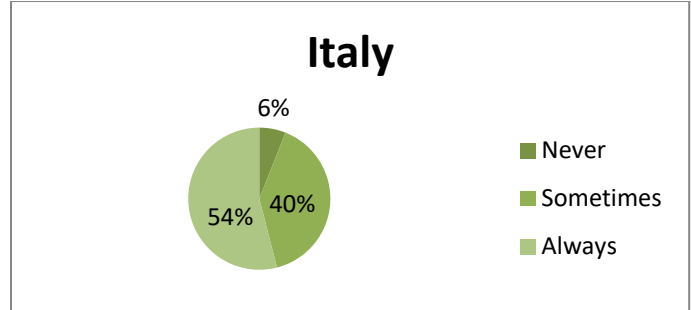

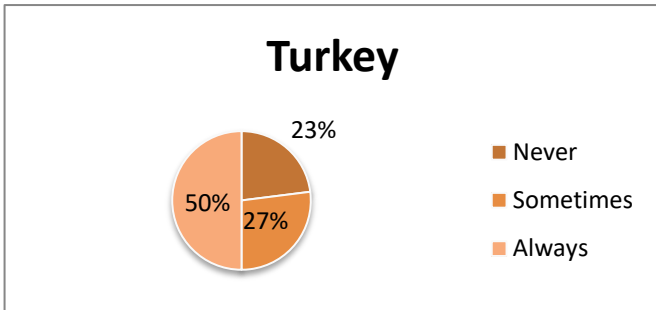

2- I have to learn a lot to understand the science.

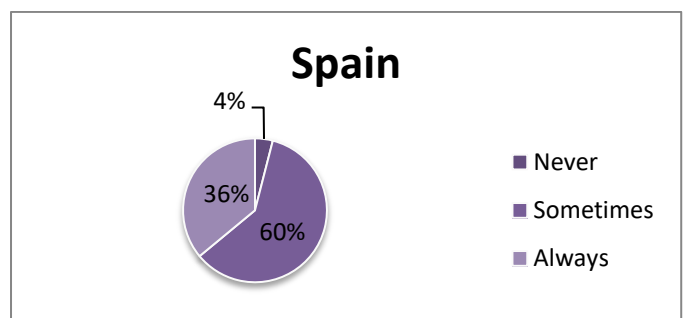

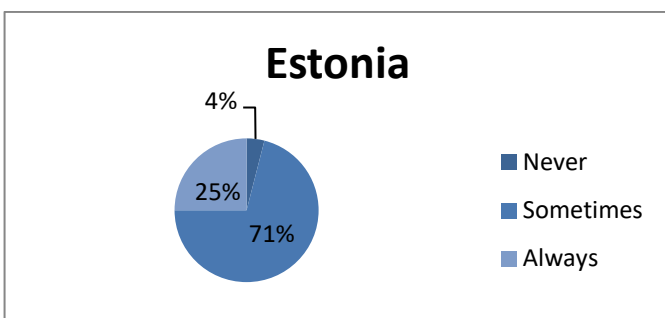

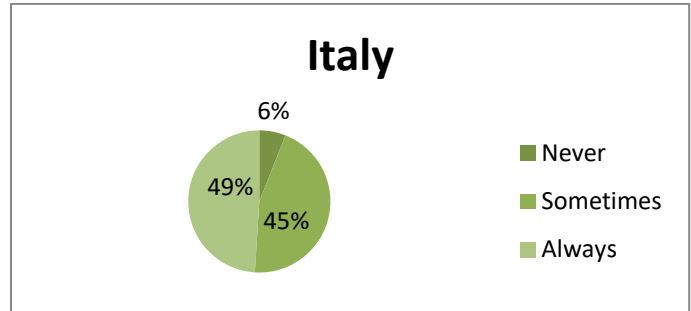

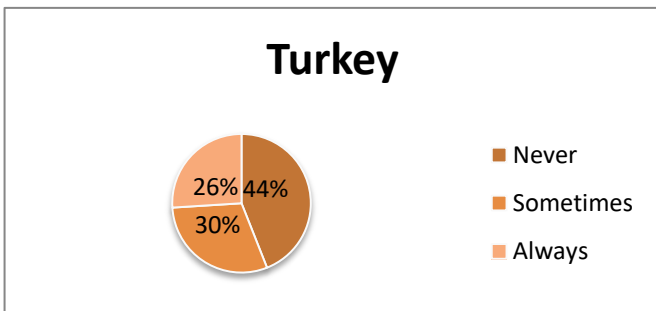

3- For me, it's important to get good grades in science classes.

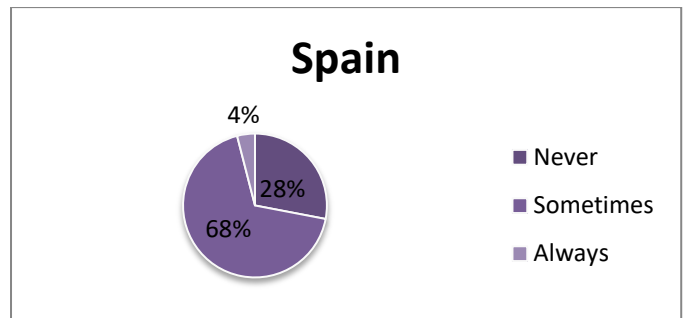

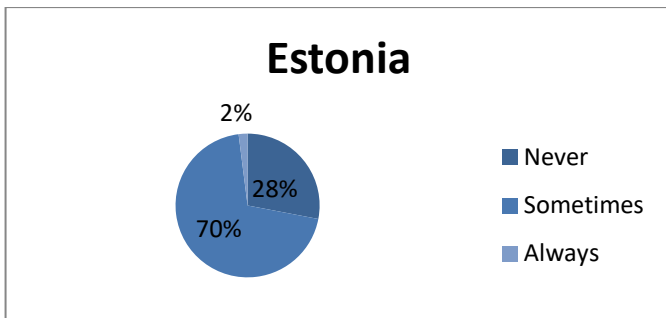

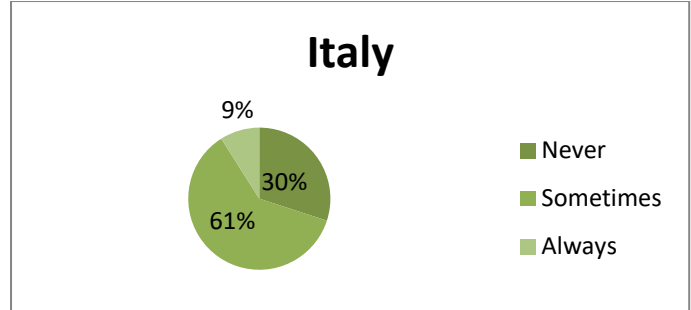

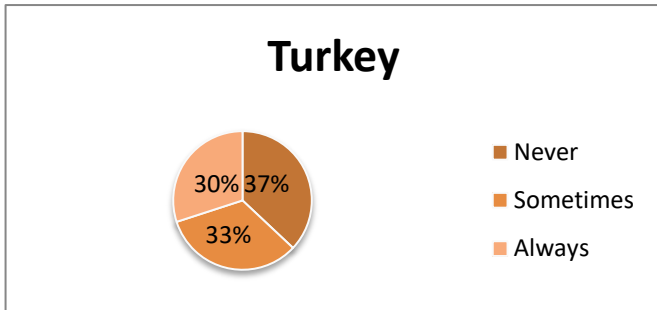

4- I am interested in natural science discoveries.

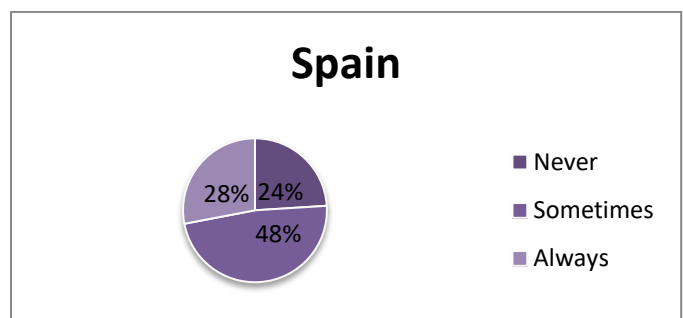

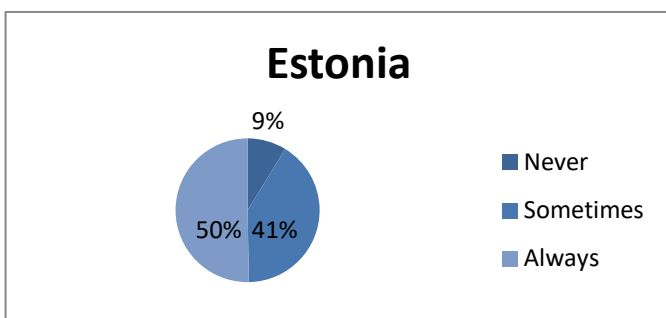

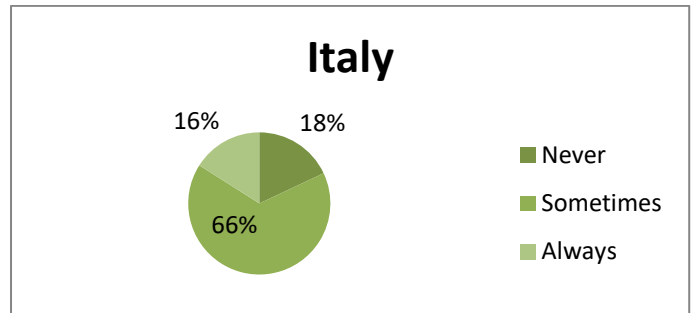

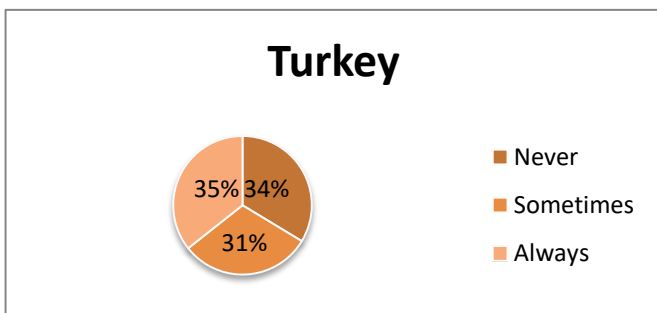

5- I prepare well for the science classes at home.

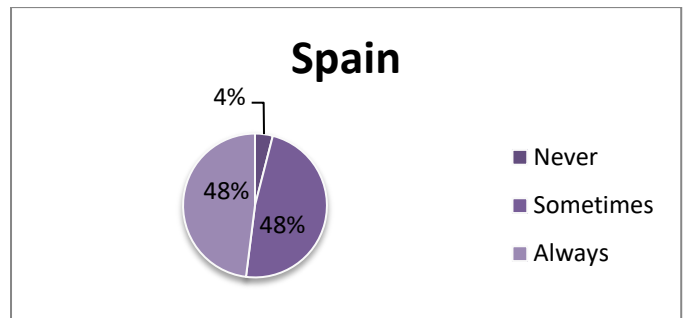

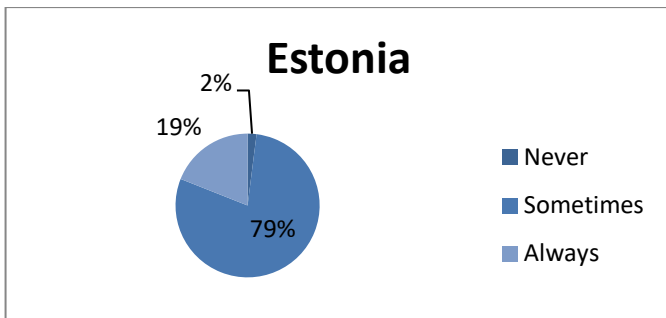

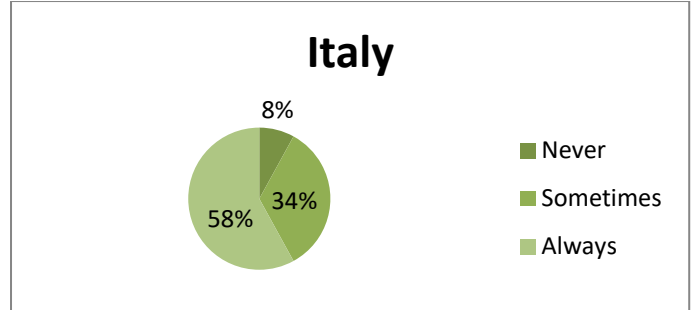

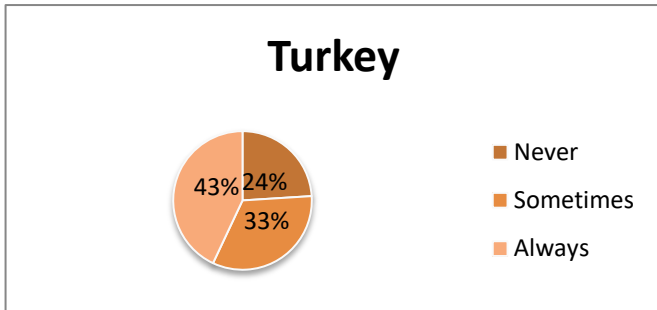

6- Studying sciences is difficult for me.

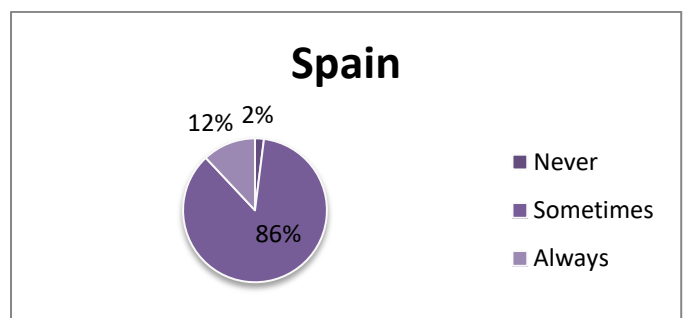

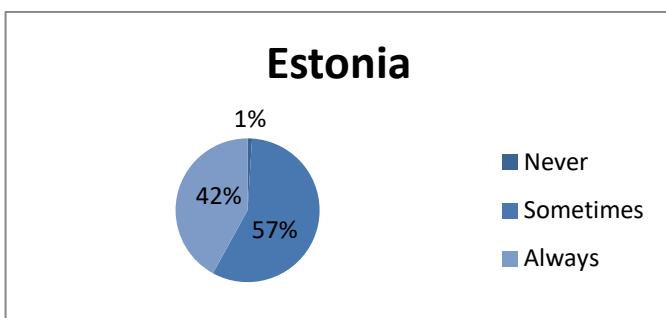

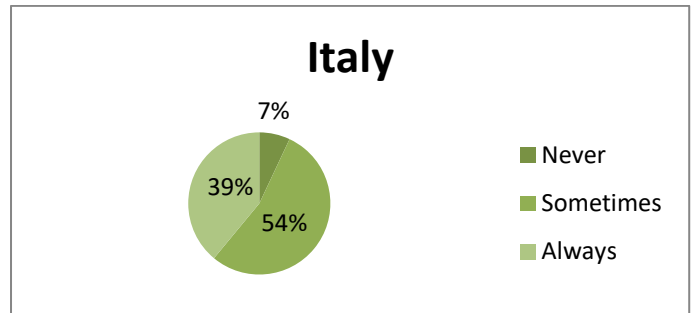

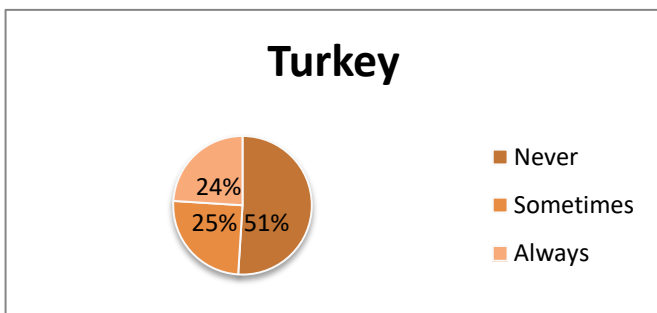

7- Studying science takes a lot of time.

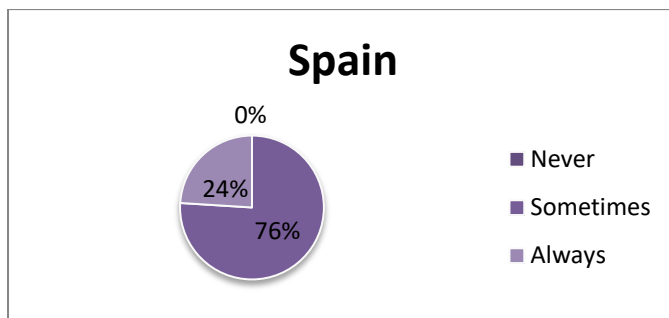

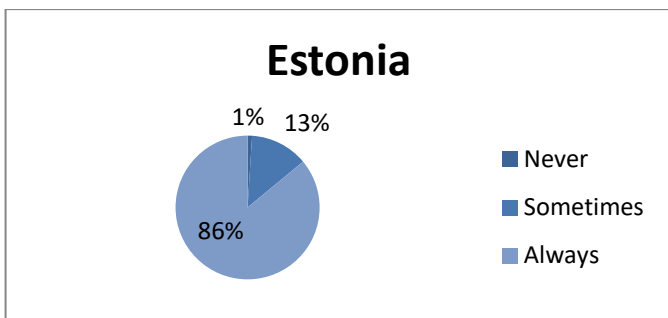

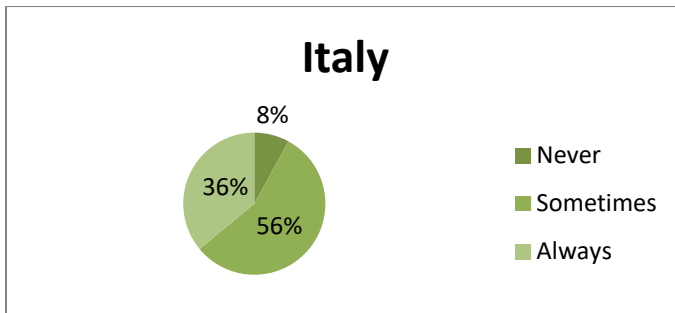

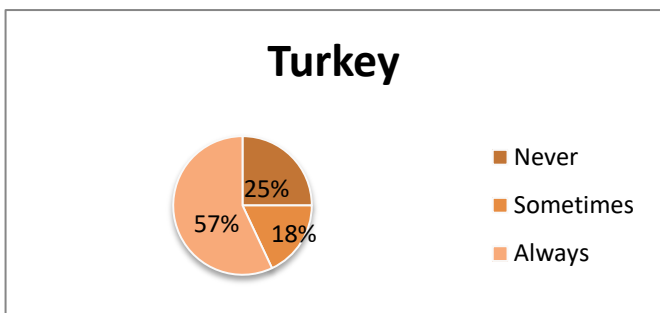

8- I like studying science.

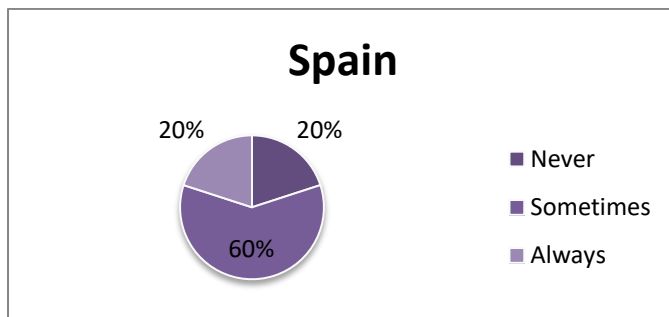

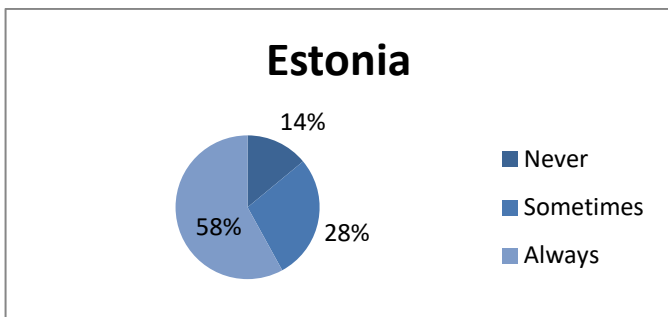

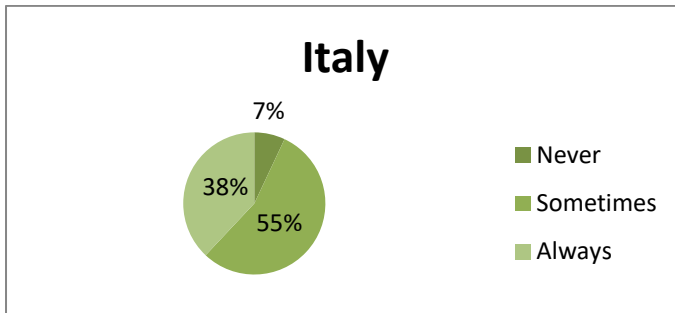

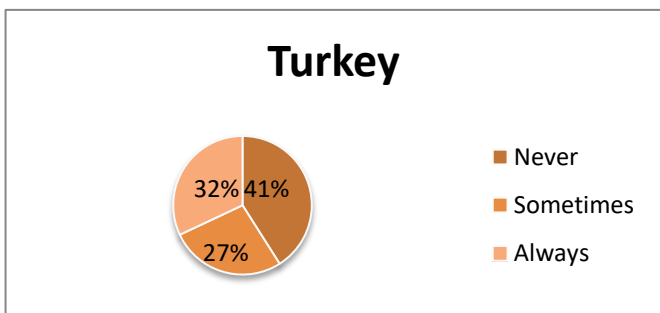

9- In science classes, I am good at doing practical works and projects.

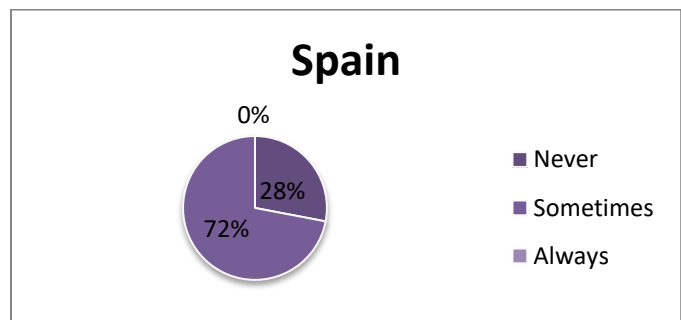

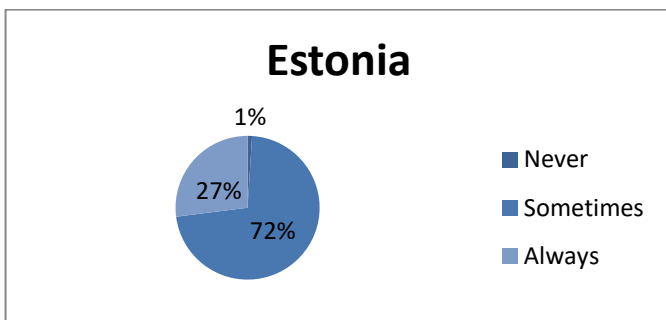

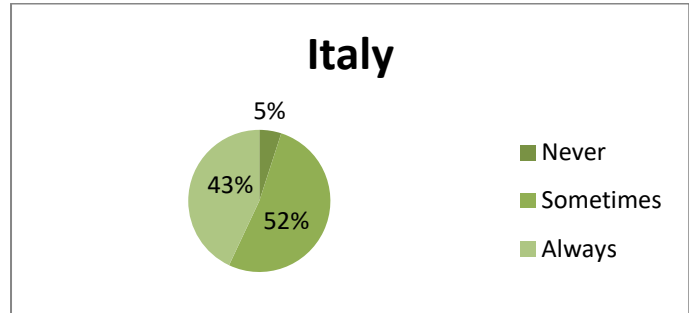

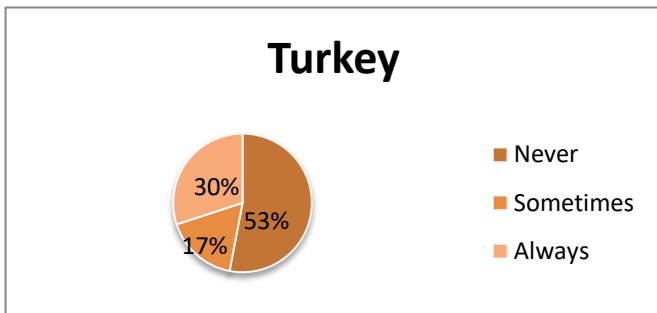

10-Studying sciences helps me to understand the environment and life better.

11- Science classes are one of the most interesting lessons in this school.

12- The learning activities in science classes are making you to show interest in science.

13- The science tasks are too difficult.

